

Comet Neowise

From early July Comet Neowise will be visible with the naked eye. At 4:00am on the 6th July low in the NE it will be just 2 1/2 degree below the star Theta Aurigae (2.6mag) in Auriga. It will be 8 degrees above the horizon and at 43.5 degrees azimuth.

The comet will be visible all night during the middle part of the month starting on the 10th From mid-month till the 25th it will be low in the NNE.